

I strongly urge the FCC NOT to relax any of the ownership regulations on media. Allowing massive concentration of the media in the hands of one owner in any market would essentially shut down public debate and thereby destroy a fundamental underpinning of our democracy.

Thank you.